

WORLD DOMINION

The World Dominion Movement advocates Informed Continuous Co-ordinated Evangelism to reach everyone at home and abroad. Its basis is belief in the Deity and Atoning Death of the Lord Jesus Christ, the World's Only Saviour, and in the Final Authority of Holy Scripture.

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

THE REV. SIR MONTAGU BEAUCHAMP, Bart., was one of the 'Cambridge Seven' and a missionary of the China Inland Mission. He has recently returned to England after travelling extensively throughout China.

DR. THOMAS GILLISON has had fifty-five years' experience as a medical missionary with the London Missionary Society in China and has made most valuable contributions to medical education in that country.

THE REV. ANDREW MACBEATH, M.A., B.D., has worked in the Belgian Congo since 1925 with the Baptist Missionary Society.

DR. FARRANT RUSSEL is a medical missionary in Burma, where he is working with the Bible Churchmen's Missionary Society.

PROFESSOR CAMARGO is Secretary for Christian Education in Mexico; Secretary of the National Council of Evangelical Churches; Manager of the Latin American Publishing House, and a recognized writer in his country on political, social and religious questions.

SR. SANTIAGO CANCLINI is a Baptist Minister in Argentina.

MR. JAMES HALDANE writes from long experience of work among Moslems. He has worked in North Africa with the Southern Morocco Mission since 1912.

REV. M. LEENHARDT, who is now pastor of an evangelical church in Paris, was for many years a missionary in New Caledonia.

REV. F. DEAVILLE WALKER is the Editor of The Kingdom Overseas.

MR. LESLIE SINGLETON, B.Sc., has worked as an evangelist in Formosa since 1921 with the English Presbyterian Mission.

REV. J. DOUGLAS ADAM, D.D., who has occupied the Chair of the Philosophy of Religion in an American University, writes from long experience as a Minister of the Church of Scotland.

REV. ALEXANDER MCLEISH, the Survey Editor of the World Dominion Press, worked for many years in charge of the Ajmer station of the (now) Church of Scotland.

REV. R. M'CHEYNE PATERSON, O.B.E., B.D., has worked since 1885 in the Panjab as a missionary of the Church of Scotland.

MEDICAL PROGRESS IN CHINA

has been done with marked success in Neyoor, South India. There is much to be said in favour of such a scheme and it would be a step in the right direction, but there might be difficulty in securing the requisite number of Chinese graduates, willing to take charge of these rural branches. The tendency is for recently qualified men either to set up in private practice for themselves or to obtain positions in one of the large city hospitals where they will get, not only larger salaries, but greater clinical experience.

Is there no solution then for this vital problem? The Chinese Government proposes to solve the medical side of it by the adoption of State medicine as part of its national policy. Dr. F. C. Yen quotes the Government as saying, 'State medicine is the only policy to effect medical protection for the mass of the population in an efficient manner.' The idea is to have a rural sub-station for every five thousand to ten thousand of the population, and a district health station for every five or ten sub-stations. We cannot here give further details, but surely this would be a great opportunity for mission hospitals in county towns to co-operate with the Government in a widely beneficent enterprise. It is also a glorious opportunity for the Chinese Christian Church to impress on Christian medical graduates the value of such work in the spread of the Gospel in their native land, and the nobility and privilege of being home missionaries in the needy places. 'May God give us many such men' is our hope and prayer.

The New Day in India

The Christian Church in India is facing one of the greatest missionary movements in history. An important and urgent public meeting, under the auspices of the missionary societies working in India, will be held in the Central Hall, Westminster, on Thursday, 8th October, 1936, at 7.30 p.m. (Music and singing by the Maranatha Choir from Mildmay at 7.0 p.m.) His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury will preside, and Bishop J. W. Pickett, D.D., will speak on the significance of the mass movements. Reserved tickets (2s. and 1s.) should be applied for at once to: The Hon. Secretary, Rev. W. H. Pratt, Mildmay Conference Centre, London, N.1.
