WORLD DOMINION

have returned in a few weeks from Quatar saying she had died of fever. She is married now after giving up some of her possessions, and has the husband of her choice. She is a friend who faithfully calls, though her home is on a small island quite a distance from here. Our hope is that the glimpses of Christ she has had will convince her that He not only saved her life, but can also save her soul. Why did this woman and others come? Because the Gospel has been preached here by missionaries like the late Mrs. Zwemer and others, who lived for Christ and permeated the island with the knowledge of His life, death and resurrection, and with the knowledge of His power to heal body and soul. Those who were called by His name and have served Him here have been a blessing and help to all those who have come after. As in the past, so may the future find those of us who follow, faithful unto the end.
